Introduction

I'm a technical leader who bridges design and technology. I've spent over two decades helping some of the world's largest organizations bring digital products to life.

Companies such as Apple, IKEA, Logitech, Nokia, BBC, Spotify, Facebook, Barclays, Microsoft, Xbox, Sky and more.

I build digital products and services with great care and attention to detail. My aim is always to bring joyful, valuable experiences to the user, while understanding the value for the business too.

My expertise spans applied AI, UI/UX design, cloud architecture - with a particular focus on rapid prototyping.
